CENTURY WHISKEY!

Persons in delicate health, often find it difficult to obtain a Pure Stimulant when prescribed by their Physicians, and it is for Druggists and other first-class trade that the

CENTURY WHISKEY

is particularly designed. It is differently prepared from

ANY WHISKEY IN MARKET, and is driving many old brands out of market, because the "principle upon which it is made is superior."

The almost universal testimony of those who have used the

CENTURY WHISKIES

is, that there is an entire absence of Headaches, and other disagreeable after-effects so often experienced in the use of other brands. This is a direct consequence of the

Purity of the Century Whiskies, and the impurity of many other brands. They are ABSOLUTELY PURE; four prominent chemists certify to this fact, viz:

Prof. SILLIMAN, State Chemist of Connecticut.

Prof. C. U. SHEPARD, Jr., State Chemist of South Carolina.

Prof. W. C. TILDEN, Washington, D. C.

Prof. JOHN DARBY, New York.

All of whom agree in pronouncing it "without fault," and "free from any deleterious substance whatever."
For sale by first-class dealers everywhere.

LOCAL BRIEFS.—

What has become of the Water Works Company?

The Board of County Commissioners meet on the 3rd prox.

Remember Valentine Vox at Tucker Hall on Tuesday evening.

Gate lifters continue to be a source of annoyance to some of our citizens.

The Board of City Commissioners meet on Wednesday evening next.

The magistrates of this township are inclined to complain of dull times.

The Register of Deeds of this county last week issued six marriage licenses.

Eighteen beeves, 10 hogs and four calves were slaughtered in this market last week.

Gov. Caldwell is not expected to return to this city until the first of next month.

Up to 6 p. m., yesterday no cases of a criminal nature had come before his Honor, the Mayor.

Pool & Moring announce fresh arrival of groceries at their establishment on Wilmington street.

See the advertisement of a dwelling house for rent and the arrival of new goods by Wyatt, Green & Co.

All the churches will be open to day, and ample opportunities are offered to all to get rid of surplus piety.

A wool pulling occurred yesterday afternoon between two drunken colored women on Cabarrus street.

We understand that a colored man, name unknown, was killed day before yesterday in Little River Township, this county, by a falling tree.

Ladies are out on the street every day in full force doing their Spring shopping. They are rigid in observing Lent in most every other particular.

A good many tax payers would like to know how much special school tax the County Commissioners will levy, should the vote next month be carried in the affirmative.

The drawings of the proposed government building in this city have been made out at Washington. Those who have seen them, say that the design promises a beautiful structure.

In our last issue we said that "Mr." Taylor had been re-elected Housekeeper of the Deaf, Dumb & Blind Institution. It should have been "Mrs." Taylor. The necessary apology is here with rendered.

The small politicians are now busying themselves over the coming municipal election. The slate has been made out, but we have only heard a portion of it. We hear that the temperance fraternity are going to have a candidate in the field for Mayor.

The membership of Edenton Street Methodist Church is still increasing. Four new members were received on last Sabbath, six on the Sabbath preceding, and six more a short time since. The pulpit has been handsomely reconstructed and the congregation are hopefully moving to extensive improvement.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—Captain Nash, of the firm of Baxter, Nash, & Co., of Norfolk is in the city.

Dr. W. H. Howerton, Secretary of State, is on a visit to his relatives in Jones county.

Gen. Pendleton left the city yesterday for the South.

A REQUISITION.—Yesterday a requisition was received at the Executive Office from the Governor of Virginia, for William Roach, a Virginia burglar who was recently captured and jailed in Tarboro. A warrant of delivery was issued.

BENEFIT LECTURE.—Edward Carswell, the Canada temperance humorist, will deliver a temperance lecture at Metropolitan Hall on Thursday night next. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged at the door. Children and servants 10 cents each.

There will be a meeting of Raleigh Lodge, No. 65, at Odd Fellows' Hall, on to-morrow evening. As business of importance will be up for consideration, every member is requested to be present.

LOST.—On Fayetteville street yesterday a gold medal plate arranged as a watch guard ornament, star shaped, and marked "Philanthropic Society, 1795." The finder will please return to this office.

LOUISBURG ITEMS.—Since the visit of your local Editor to this place, but little of interest has transpired. The charge of Judge Watts to the Grand Jury on the first morning of the Court, and a few hours before the arrival of Woodson, was nearly the same old charge with only a few slight variations. As some time has elapsed since its delivery I will not attempt even a synopsis now. I can only add to the account of Franklin Court already given in your columns, that Judge Watts presided with more dignity, despatched more business in a shorter time and gave more general satisfaction than on any previous occasion.

The repairs on the Courthouse have been completed, and also much needed repairs and alterations have been made on the county jail. It is believed that no prisoner can now escape from its walls, unless aided by outside help.

Manufacturies are still springing up in and around our rapidly growing town. Messrs. Wilder & William's Plow Foundry recently completed, is one of the largest of its kind in the State, being 100 feet long and 28 wide. The engine used is a 24 horse power, and all the arrangements of the entire building and foundry are complete. They are also prepared to turn out castings of any pattern, including mill irons, &c.

Messrs. Baker & Co., of this place, have established a tannery with Wm. H. Hester, Sr., as chief in charge. Mr. Hester is an old experienced tanner and renders satisfaction to his numerous patrons.

Wesley H. Spencer, Esq., Attorney at Law, &c., was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Miss Emma G., the accomplished daughter of N. B. Walker, Esq., of this place, on Wednesday evening, the 19th inst. Rev. P. J. Carraway was the officiating clergyman.

Also, on the evening of the 20th, at the residence of the late Reuben Rogers, Mr. Dorson Gaines to Miss Martha A. Rogers, M. N. Young, Esq., officiating. The latter couple were small-pox patients of Dr. Crenshaw's and narrowly escaped the severe and violent attack of this loathsome disease. C. M. W.

OUR CHURCHES TO-DAY.—Divine services will be held at the following Churches to day, (Sunday.) Strangers and others in the city are earnestly and cordially invited to attend. Gentlemanly ushers will be present to conduct visitors to pews which are always free.

Edenton Street Methodist Church, Edenton street, Rev. A. W. Mangum, officiating. Services at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7½ o'clock P. M.

Baptist Church, corner Salisbury and Edenton streets, Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., officiating. Services at 11 o'clock A. M. and 8 o'clock P. M.

Presbyterian Church, corner Salisbury and Morgan streets, Rev. J. M. Atkinson, D. D. officiating. Services at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7½ o'clock P. M.

Christ's (Episcopal) Church, Wilmington street, Rev. R. S. Mason, D. D., officiating, services at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7½ o'clock P. M.

St. John's (Catholic) Church, corner Morgan & Wilmington streets. Rev. J. V. McNamara, priest, officiating. High mass at 11 o'clock. Vespers at 3 o'clock P. M.

Person street Methodist Church, Rev. Mr. W. H. Bobbitt officiating. Service at 11 o'clock a. m., and 7½ a. m.

NORTH CAROLINA AT THE VIENNA EXPOSITION.—We learn that Prof. W. C. Kerr, our State Geologist, is preparing a large agricultural and mineralogical map of this State for exhibition at the grand International Exposition at Vienna. The topography of the State will be delineated. Its valleys, mountains, rivers, etc., will be shown, together with the divisions of the soil etc. In short all statistics necessary to a complete knowledge of the State will be given. The various tables will be printed in both the English and German languages. The map will be finished in the course of the next three weeks. We learn that the work of copying the map is to be done at army headquarters in New York. We trust that Prof. Kerr's arduous labors in this direction may be rewarded by a tide of German immigration to this sparsely settled land of ours.

THE BERGER FAMILY.—The Berger family gave a matinee and evening performance at Tucker Hall yesterday afternoon and last evening to a large and highly appreciative audience, on both occasions. We have only to say that this excellent troupe sustained their well earned reputation as artists of more than ordinary attainments. They leave here Monday for Danville, where we bespeak for them crowded houses, that is, if the citizens of that city are disposed to encourage first-class entertainments.

"EDUCATION—THE NATION'S HOPE."—We are pleased to learn that Rev. Dr. York, Professor of Rhetoric in Rutherford College, will deliver a free lecture in Metropolitan Hall, on the above subject, on Wednesday night next. Dr. York has been blind for twenty years or more, but thoroughly understands his theme, and is a most interesting and instructive lecturer. Let everybody hear him on Wednesday night.

FIRE IN FAYETTEVILLE.—When the train left Fayetteville yesterday morning, a fire was raging near the Depot. One dwelling house had already been entirely consumed, and another one had taken fire and was rapidly burning up when the train left. We trust that the flames were subdued before other damage was done.

MISS JEANIE PATTERSON.—We see from our exchanges that Miss Jeanie Patterson gave readings and recitations in Griffin last week, and in Macon on Thursday and Friday evenings last.

(1) Pure and mellow! Century Whiskey!

JOHN G. SAXE, THE POET—TUCKER HALL TO MORROW NIGHT.—John G. Saxe, the Tom Hood of America, will arrive in this city to-morrow morning from Savannah, Georgia, and lecture at Tucker Hall at night. The doors will be opened at 7 o'clock, and the lecture to begin at 8 o'clock. We hope and trust our citizens generally will turn out in large numbers, and crowd the hall. We clip the following from the Chicago Times:

"Saxe's poem on "Love," last Saturday evening, at Metropolitan Hall, more than made good the expectations of his warmest admirers. It was dignified and chastely classical throughout, although bubbling over with the richest humor; and the reception of the poem was genial and enthusiastic to the end."

A RUNAWAY.—A team of mules ran away with a wagon loaded with hay yesterday on Wilmington street, and the head of one of the mules coming in contact with a tree near the office of Dr. W. H. McKee, the tree proved the most stubborn and the mule was killed. The team belonged to Henry Mordecai, who sustains a loss of about $175 by the accident.

THE KEEPER OF THE CAPITOL.—Mr. I. W. Rogers, the Keeper of the Capitol, desires us to say that the well in the Capitol Square is in perfect order, and any child can draw water from it. He complains of the article in the Sentinel charging him with a direliction of duty in not keeping the wells in order, when such is not the case. In justice to Mr. Rogers we make the statement.

CONVALESCENT.—We were pleased to see on the streets yesterday, Mr. J. M. Monie, the popular Fayetteville street commission merchant, who has been confined to his bed by sickness for ten days or more past. He is yet feeble, but with no relapse will be able for duty the coming week.

PROMPT.—Andrew Syme, Esq., the General Agent of the Guardian Mutual Life Insurance Company, on yesterday paid to the heirs of M. J. Myers, Esq., who was killed a short time since on the Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad, $1000, it being the amount of his insurance policy in said Company.

MEETING.—There will be another meeting of the citizens of Raleigh, at Metropolitan Hall, on Thursday evening next, to take into consideration matters pertaining to the next Fair.

Mr. Saxe's Lecture.

Messrs. Editor:—Those who are thoughtful of the better interests of our city, can but be gratified that the poet-humorist of America is to deliver a lecture to our citizens. It augurs well for the improvement of our people on the subject of puplic entertainments, when they substitute the intellectual and refined for the unprofitable and often times vitiating exhibitions of the miscellaneous drama. We ought to have frequent lectures on popular themes from the accomplished talent of the land. It would not cost the community as much money, it would benefit it vastly more. Let the good system of lectures, now inaugurated, be liberally sustained. A. W. M.

NOON DISPATCHES.

FOSTER POISONED HIMSELF.

His Sickness Friday Morning---His Confession of having taken Poison ---He could not have lived till 10 o'clock---The cause of his Prostration at the Gallows.

NEW YORK, March 22.—A statement is published to-day based on information derived from a Tombs official, that Foster took poison the night before the execution. About 8 o'clock yesterday morning, the matron of the Tombs found Foster sick, and in explanation he then admitted that he had taken poison. The man's symptoms in every way confirmed the suspicion. On this account the Sheriff hastened the execution, and while many believed the duration of the religious exercises were telling on Fosters' nerves, it was in reality weakness caused by poison that was acting on him. The tomb's physician says Foster would have died if the execution had been delayed until ten o'clock.

A Havana dispatch says the Spaniards are becoming seriously embarrassed for want of funds to meet the expenses of the prolonged conflict with the insurgents.

Arrest of Supposed Bank of England Forgers.

NEW YORK, March 22d.—Judson Jarvis, clerk of arrests bureau, claims that he discovered to-day strong proof that George McDonald arrested yesterday is either A. Warren himself, or one of his principal confederates in the late heavy forgeries on the Bank of England. Letters and packages have been found here addressed to Austin Bidwell, and A. Byron Bidwell, and Geo. McDonald. The last mentioned came to Duncan, Sherman & Co., and they knew nothing of its owner.

Marine Disaster.

SAVANNAH, GA., March 22.—The Ship Caduces, ashore on Sapelo Island, will be a total wreck. The captain and the crew have arrived here.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Foster Still Talked About—Tweed's Case, &c.

NEW YORK, March 22.—William Foster was buried this morning at Greenwood, Rev. Drs. Walker and Tyng officiating. After the service Dr. Tyng said he felt it his duty to state his belief that the report that Foster had taken poison and was dying at the time of his execution was false; that he and Dr. Walker were alone with Foster for three-quarters of an hours immediately previous to his going to the scaffold; that he seemed in good health and strength, and had a remarkable self-possession of mind; that he dressed himself with minute care, conversed fully and freely and on being visited by the Sheriff at 9 o'clock announced his readiness in a full and cheerful voice, and although pinioned walked with a firm step and without assistance to the scaffold where he stood until the fatal moment. Both clergymen declared the idea that he attempted or contemplated suicide as entirely inconsistent with their observation of his physical and moral conduct during the last hours of his life.

Tweed's counsel, before the Senate investigating Committee, has taken the ground that the committee has no jurisdiction, Tweed not having been, nor intended being a member of the Senate. The Committee decided that the question was not within their province and procedeed to examine the witnesses;

Washington News---Confirmations and Nominations---President Sick, etc.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Confirmations: Casey, Collector of Customs at New Orleans; Shaw, Postmaster at Tarboro, N. C.; Adams, Postmaster at Pensacola.

The President is indisposed, and no visitors were admitted. No Executive business.

The Senate, after a brief open session, went into Executive session. Casey occupied them two and a half hours. It is understood that Democrats generally voted for Casey upon the ground that he was more acceptable to the people of New Orleans than any person the President would nominate in his stead. The exact figures and names are inaccessible, but it is understood Casey was confirmed by a respectable majority.

Nominations: Wm. P. Dockery, Collector at St. John's, Fla.; Joseph Jugensen, Collector at Petersburg, Va.

Washington Affairs.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The letters and packages which have been addressed to Bidwell, care of Duncan Sherman & Co., Bankers, and the Safe Deposit company are supposed to contain missing bonds of the Bank of England. Proceedings to attach these letters were commenced to-day. Bidwell is an accomplice of McDowell's.

From Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—John Lewis Baker, a well-known actor, is dead, aged 45. He was the brother of Mrs. J. Schanfrau, and married Miss Alexina Fisher, daughter of Mrs. E. N. Thayer. Was President of Actors Order of Friendship.

Royal Birthday.

BERLIN, March 22.—To-day is a holiday in Berlin, it being the anniversary of the birth of Emperor William. Flags are flying from public and private buildings and the city will be illuminated to-night. The Emperor is seventy-six years old to-day.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE following statement, from one of the oldest and most respectable merchants of the city of Petersburg, speaks for itself and needs no comment:

I have for many years used "BECKWITH'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS" as a family medicine and also in my own case, and I have no hesitation in pronouncing them the most safe, efficient and pleasant medicine with which I am acquainted. They promptly relieve Dyspepsia and its usual attendants, Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache, Loss of Appetite, Cholic, &c. I take pleasure in recommending them to the public. They ward off disease and preserve health. I always keep a full supply on hand and would not willingly be without them. JOHN ROWLETT.

Prepared solely by the proprietor, E. R. BECKWITH, successor to Dr. Beckwith, Petersburg, Va., and for sale, at the reduced price of 25 cents per box, by all druggists and by Joseph Carr, Wholesale Agent.

AVOID CONSUMPTION.—No enemy to the human race is more to be dreaded and is more insidious in its approaches than the too fatal destroyer of health and happiness of myriads—"Consumption in its ghastly form" The duty of all is to guard against its first advances. This may be done by the timely use of Dr. Tutt's Expectorant.

BOSTON, February 9, 1870.

Dr. Tutt:

Dear Sir—Will you please inform me at what druggist, in New York, I can get your Expectorant, as I can use some of it to advantage, having seen the effect of it on a friend of mine? I am fully satisfied that it has but to be tried to establish its merits. It works like magic. What is your wholesale price, delivered in New York? Let me know where it can be had for the present in New York, and I will communicate further with you at another time.

Very truly yours,
W. H. BARRON, 96 Summer street.

THE PEOPLE'S STAMP OF VALUE.—The Government indorsement, which legalizes the sale of PLANTATION BITTERS, is not the only stamp affixed to that famous Vegetable Tonic. It bears, in addition to that of official sanction, the still more valuable stamp of public approbation. This inestimable voucher of its rare properties as a Tonic, Corrective and Alterative, is of much earlier date than the Government credential; for millions of sick persons had pronounced it the Grand Specific of the Age long before Congress thought of taxing proprietary medicines. It is unnecessary to repeat, in detail, the properties of this wonderful Vegetable Invigorant. The best reference that can be offered to those who desire the full particulars of its virtues, is the General Public. Ask those who have tried it as a remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, billiousness, intermittent fevers, nervous debility, rheumatism, sea sickness, low spirits or loss of vital power, what Plantation Bitters has done for them, and be governed by the response they make to your inquiries

THE SECRET OF BEAUTY.—What is it? no longer asked, for the world of fashion and all the ladies know that it is produced by using a delightful and harmless toilet preparation known as G. W. Laird's "Bloom o Youth." Its beautifying effects are truly wonderful. Depot, 5 Gold Street, Ne York.

BURNETT'S STANDARD FLAVORING EXTRACTS are neatly put up in Unpannelled 2 oz., 5 oz. and 10 oz. bottles, and are for sale by the trade generally in every principal city and town in the United States, Canadas, and British Provinces, as well as in many other foreign countries.

HELP FOR THE HOPELESS.—You are weak dejected, miserable, and nothing does you any good, you say. Don't despair. There is balm in Gilead. Have you tried Vinegar Bitters? No! Then why don't you? Whatever your complaint may be dyspepsia, biliousness, nervous weakness, constitutional debility, or any other trouble, Vinegar Bitters will revive and renovate your shattered system, as a genial rain refreshes the withered flowers.

TO OWNERS OF HORSES.—No one who has ever used Dr. Tobias' Horse Venetian Liniment, will ever be without it; it is a certain cure for Colic, Sore Throat, Cuts, Bruises and Old Sores. Warranted superior to any other; in pint bottles, at One Dollar. Sold by all Druggists. Depot, 10 Park Place, New York.

RISLEY'S BUCHU is a reliable Diuretic and Tonic for all derangements of the urinary and genital organs. The genuine, as formerly sold by Haviland, Harral & Risley, and their branches, is now prepared by H. W. Risley, the originator and Proprietor; and the trade supplied by his successors, Morgan & Risley, New York.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL, has a world-wide reputation as the surest and best illuminating oil. Over two million gallons have been sold for the past two years, from which no accidents of any description have occurred. Send for circular. Off House of Charles Pratt, established 1770, New York.

WE HAVE FREQUENTLY HEARD mothers say they would not be without Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, from the birth of the child until it has finished with the teething siege, under any consideration whatever.

SVAPNIA, or opium purified, the most perfect anodyne in the market, made by process of Dr. I. M. Bigelow, Detroit Medical College. Is always uniform in strength, which is rarely the case in other preparations of Opium.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, indigestion, depression of spirits and general debility in their various forms; also, as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers, the Ferro-Phosphorated Elixir of Calisaya, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York, and sold by all Druggists, is the best tonic, and as a tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness, it has no equal.

THURSTON'S IVORY PEARL TOOTH POWDER.—The best article known for cleansing and preserving the teeth and gums. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. F. C. Wells & Co., New York.

INDICTING A NEWSPAPER FOR LIBEL.

We gave full particulars at the time, of the persistent and unsuccessful efforts of Solicitor Cantwell last Fall, to have the Editors of the Wilmington Journal indicted by the Grand Jury of New Hanover County, for calling Judge Bond, of the United States Circuit Court, a scoundrel.

Solicitor Cantwell subsequently made the same attempt in other counties in his District, with the like result, until he reached Bladen, where by dint of perseverance and the use of unlawful means, as the Editors of the Journal assert, he at last succeeded in getting the Grand Jury to find a true bill against Messrs. Engelhard and Saunders, the Proprietors of the Journal.

Although they do not so state, we presume the Editors of the Journal will justify, in case it should be held by the Courts that the word scoundrel applied to a Judge is scandalous matter. As Judge Russell charged the Grand Jury of New Hanover at the Fall Term of the Superior Court, in accordance with the instructions prayed for by Solicitor Cantwell, that the word scoundrel applied to a Judge was libelous and indictable, and as His Honor has thus prejudged the case, we have no idea that the Editors of the Journal will consent to be tried before Russell; but they will doubtless apply for a removal of their cause to some other District.

According to some of the newspapers of Baltimore, his Honor, Judge Bond, does not enjoy a very enviable reputation in some circles in that city, and it may be that his Honor will not thank Solicitor Cantwell for the opportunity, or rather the necessity of going into a judicial investigation of his private and official career.—We remember reading an article several months since from a Baltimore paper, we have forgotten which one, in which Judge Bond was handled without gloves and if he has not been grossly misrepresented at home it will not be a difficult matter for the Editors of the Journal to make out a very good case against his Honor.

We incline to the opinion that Judge Bond will not feel under any special obligations to Solicitor Cantwell for having this libel indictment found, because if the Judge desired anything of the kind, he could find abundant material in his own State, without resorting to the Courts of an interior county of North Carolina to vindicate his character and to uphold the insulted majesty of the law.

In the matter of this libel indictment, we must be permitted to say that Solicitor Cantwell has exhibited an unquenchable zeal, a devotedness of purpose and a dogged resolution, which if manifested in all other matters pertaining to his duties would constitute him the most faithful, energetic, indomitable and irrepressible prosecuting officer North Carolina has ever had—before, during, or since the war! The Editors of the Wilmington Journal rather sarcastically assert that, after giving him an opportunity to vindicate Judge Bond, they will then give Solicitor Cantwell a chance to defend his own character.

AS NEAR THE TRUTH AS CAN BE EXPECTED.

"'Tis true 'tis pity and pity 'tis, 'tis true," that the Northern people are kept in constant and extraordinary ignorance of the real character, sentiments and condition of the people of the South.

But for this ignorance the war would never have occurred. But for this ignorance, prejudice and ill-feeling between the two sections would never have existed. But for this ignorance, the fictitious pictures of Southern life as exhibited in Uncle Tom's Cabin and similar sensational romances would never have been accepted at the North as true stories of Southern life and manners. But for this ignorance, there would long since have been practical, genuine, permanent restoration of the North and South in the same bonds of mutual interest and friendship that existed long before the appeal to arms dissevered for awhile the political relations that held the Union together, in a common brotherhood of States.

We have been led into this train of reflections from an article in the Boston Globe, which has been copied and commented on by several of our exchanges. The article is headed "Wise Legislation," and appeared soon after our Legislature adjourned. The Globe says that the North Carolina Legislature, after a protracted session, passed but a single act during the term, and that was a resolution declaring "Beaufort is a good harbor." The Globe adds: "We suppose that matter is definitely settled, then, and without the intervention of lobbyists. We have no more curiosity than other people, but we do wish we knew how the North Carolina legislators amused themselves during the time they were not passing that bill."

This is about as near the truth as the North Carolina Legislature had a right to expect from a Massachusetts Editor. We will not suppose the Editor of the Globe has perpetrated a willful falsehood, but will presume that he received his information from some irresponsible, malicious person who is anxious to do all the injury he can to our State.

But for whatever purpose the statement is made, it is ridiculously absurd and false in fact, and to refute the silly slander we will enclose to the Editor of the Globe a copy of the captions of the Acts and Resolutions passed by the late Legislature, and from which he will see there were three hundred and fifty-nine in all. The Legislature was in session sixty-eight working days—making over five bills a day passed as an average. It is true among these many will be found unimportant and of purely local interest, but a few of them are of the highest moment to the welfare and prosperity of the State. The Constitutional Amendments which passed both Houses, eight in all, are measures of vital importance, effecting material and necessary changes in the Constitution and these alone are worth to the people of the State the expenses and labor of the entire session.

The present carpet-bag Constitution, framed by New England political quacks such as Abbott, Ashley and other birds of the migratory tribe of Carpet-baggers, has been pronounced by the ablest lawyers in the State a bundle of inconsistencies and absurdities, and wherefore we find that, in less than five years after it was saddled on our people, some who first advocated it are loud in their denunciations now and many Republicans in the Legislature united with the conservatives in voting for the Amendments which were recently passed.

The North Carolina Legislators, both Republicans and Conservatives, "amused themselves" during the session just closed a large portion of the time, in devising ways and means, to protect the people from the follies and outrages of the Radical State Constitution, devised by New England and other Northern Carpet-baggers who came to North Carolina and other Southern States at the close of the war, to enrich themselves at the expense of a people impoverished by the calamities of war, and bowed down by political and domestic misfortunes.

Only one bill passed by the North Carolina Legislature, says the Boston Globe! Very good for the Globe, but as this statement is about as near the truth as we generally find in the Northern papers in regard to any matter relating to the South, we need not be surprised at what may appear to some of our citizens as a very remarkable and unaccountable mis-statement.

SAXE.

The citizens of Raleigh will have an opportunity on Monday evening, of exhibiting their literary taste and their appreciation of true genius and genuine wit, by attending the lecture of America's greatest humorous poet, John G. Saxe, who has been termed not inaptly the Tom Hood of the present generation.

Saxe stands to-day confessedly at the head of the list of all the rivals in his line in this country, and we expect to see Tucker Hall well filled, as a rich literary treat is in store for all who may attend.

There is a pungency, a piquancy, a lively humor pervading Saxe's Poems which have made them extremely popular in all circles, and those who have read these Poems have a keen desire to see the renowned author, and hear from his lips sparkling witticisms and happy hits such as they have been accustomed to admire in his writings.

Mr. Saxe will give us his views on LOVE—a subject that presents a fine field for the play of his peculiar genius. The handsome encomiums that have been passed upon this effort by many of the best scholars and literati of the country, both North and South, lead us to believe that it is one of Mr. Saxe's best productions.

The following Poem written by him several years ago is a fair illustration of his style, although by no means the most admired of his humorous pieces:

THE COLD-WATER MAN.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.

There lived an honest fisherman—
I knew him passing well—
Who dwelt hard by a little pond,
Within a little dell.

All day that fisherman would sit
Upon an ancient log,
And gaze into the water, like
Some sedentary frog.

A cunning fisherman was he;
His angles all were right;
And, when he scratched his aged poll,
You'd know he'd got a bite.

To charm the fish he never spoke,
Although his voice was fine;
He found the most convenient way
Was just to "drop a line."

And many a "gudgeon" of the pond,
If made to speak to day,
Would own, with grief, this angler had
A mighty "taking way."

One day, while fishing on the log,
He mourned his want of luck—
When, snddenly, he felt a bite,
And jerking—caught a duck!

Alas! that day the fisherman
Had taken too much grog;
And being but a landsman, too,
He could'nt "keep the log."

In vain he strove with all his might,
And tried to gain the shore;—
Down, down he went, to feed the fish
He'd baited oft before!

The moral of this mournful tale
To all is plain and clear;—
A single "drop too much" of rum
May make a watery bier.

And he who will not "sign the pledge"
And keep his promise fast,
May be, in spite of fate, a stark
Cold-water man at last.

A young man out of employment and health desires to act as a substitute for some pensioner of the war of 1812. No objection to going into the country. —Danbury News.

DID FOSTER TAKE POISON?

Those who read the account published yesterday concerning the condition of Foster at the time he was executed, were doubtless struck with the statement that the condemned man, while the devotional services were being read at the scaffold, was rapidly sinking and scarcely able to stand. This statement taken in connection with the fact that a few moments before he had walked unfalteringly, from the prison to the place of execution, with a hectic flush upon his cheek, gives some color of truth to the rumor published in our dispatches to-day, that he had taken poison in order that he might escape the hangman's disgraceful fate.

The matron of the Tombs, who found Foster sick on the morning of his execution, says he confessed to her that he had taken poison, and the Tombs' physician states that if his execution had been delayed, he would have died before ten o'clock. He was hanged at seventeen minutes past nine.

The bystanders attributed the giving away of his nervous system to the effect of the religous services at the scaffold, but it is now believed that this prostration was caused in fact by the poison administered by his own hands. The Sheriff seeing his condition, hastened the execution otherwise death would have cheated the gallows of its victim.

The Nation objects to the proposed amendment to the Constitution recognizing God, His Son, Jesus Christ, and the Bible, because it would disqualify from citizenship so large an element of our population. But it adds, cautiously, that there would be enough let to hold office, and mentions Mr. James Harlan and Jay Gould as persons who could take the oath of office under the new article.

William B. Woodward, a respectable citizen of Whittenton, Massachusetts, on Thursday cut a hole in the ice on the river, and fastening an anvil weighing fifty pounds to his person, jumped in and was drowned. He had shown signs of insanity at intervals, and the recent death of his father and brother seems to have increased his malady. A prolonged absence led to the discovery of the sad deed.

Dr. Newman will take a trip around the world, starting after the adjournment of the Senate. He will act, during the tour, as a servant of the Lord and a representative of his country. In the latter capacity as an Inspector of Consulates, he will draw traveling expenses and enough salary to furnish clothing for a modest disciple of his meek and lowly Master.

Austria appears likely to take a great step forward in the matter of liberal education. Hitherto the universities have been encumbered by rules of an exclusively Catholic character. It is now proposed to open the professorships to all learned men, without any religious distinction.

Sir Henry Rawlinson, lecturing at the Royal Institution in London on the researches of Dr. Livingstone, said he did not think he was too sanguine in saying they were hopeful of Dr. Livingstone's success, and his happy return, if not this year, by this time next year.

Newark, N. J., has three times as many men as women, and has organized a society to remove the inequalities of distribution and promote marriage. A committee will be sent to Boston and to Troy, N.Y., to secure a supply of wives.

The Governor of Kentucky has declined to pardon Thomas Smith, convicted of the murder of Joseph Bredon, on the 10th of May, 1871, and sentenced to be hanged on the 28th inst., at Louisville.

Your attention is called to the "Opinions of the Press," and the reports of disinterested Newspaper Correspondents from various sections throughout Eastern and Middle North Carolina, and Southeastern Virginia, where it has been extensively used,—stating the high repute in which this Fertilizers is held by the Planters, as matter of public concern and benefit. Enquire for Pamphlet containing these Testimonials and Opinions of the Press and other Useful Matter of General Information and Interest to the Farmer.

It has been so extensively used and universally praised that it requires no commendation at our hand.. The Cotton Planters using it affirm that it matures the Cotton earlier by Several Weeks, and nearly doubles the yield. Many say it is equaled by no manipulated Guano on the market; and prefer it for many reasons to the Peruvian Guano.

There will be only a limited amount of this Fertilizer manufactured especially for our supply and trade, and we desire that the Cotton Planters in the section of country tributary to this market, should FIRST BE SUPPLIED, with what they may need. After supplying the needs of the Planters, in the region named, the remainder, if any over, will go to fill the orders of the trade at large, throughout the wide district of territory assigned to us.

Some of the ingredients for this Fertilizer, the "Southern Fertilizing Company" had to import from Germany at a great cost, and this stock had to be laid in and prepared beforehand. The Company, therefore, required us to inform them at the beginning of the season, the probable amount our trade would require, which we did accordingly and we feel confident from the numerous inquiries and large orders received that the demand will far exceed our stock, or ability to supply, and therefore we bespeak our Planter friends to send in their orders at once, (that we may book them, and thereby give them the preference,)—and then, they can order the Fertilizer to be shipped to them whenever they need it.

The Fertilizer will cost the Planter no more to order it early in the season. Time Price $65, Free of Interest—Cash Price $60—at our Warehouse in Norfolk. It is put up in new, strong bags of 200 lbs to the bag. "FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED," is the old adage. If our friends neglect to avail themselves of the opportunity presented, and hereby duly notified, they cannot blame us if their orders later in the season have to be turned off.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Charlotte wants a City Hall bad.

More mica has been found in Buncombe.

The Skating Rink in Asheville is still in full blast.

The streets of Louisburg are being improved.

Wilmington wails out her complaints of sneak thieves and burglars.

A Virginia burglar named Roach was arrested in Tarboro the other day.

Mr. Carswell's lecture in Charlotte on Thursday evening was largely attended.

McDowell court will not be opened until Monday of the second week of the term.

W. W. Parker, of Rocky Mount, last week lost sixteen cords of wood by fire.

The mail train on the Western North Carolina Railroad leaves Old Fort now at 1 p. m.

J. W. Bass, an estimable young man, died in Rocky Mount on the 14th inst. of measles.

A few days ago the kitchen of Mr. Reynolds Barnett, Franklin county, was destroyed by fire.

The citizens of Tarboro are making strenuous efforts to revive the Edgecombe Female Seminary.

The earnings of Charlotte and Augusta Railroad during the month of January amounted to $59,518.89.

On the evening of the 16th inst, the house of W. J. Johnson, near Cedar Rock, Nash county, was burnt down.

The want of business has caused the steamer "Isis" to be taken off the Tar River between Tarboro and Washington.

The burning of a roof of a black smith shop in Asheville the other day created a terrible consternation among the inhabitant.

U. S. Commissioner J. M. Chandler, has at last adjourned his Court in Webster, Jackson county, after a session of only three weeks.

Two men named J. W. Cogdell and John Henry engaged in a fight in Webster a few days ago when the former received a severe stab in the arm. Whiskey.

The "hog law" and "dog law" are agitating Tarboro, and it is believed, by the deepest thinking persons of that happy village, that the next municipal election will be fought out on those issues.

Says the Franklin Courier of the 21st: We learn that on Thursday night, 13th inst., the mill and gin house of Mr. Madison Sykes, of Nash county, was burned, with 20 bags of cotton. The mill and gin were new—loss estimated at $4,000. No insurance. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

The Courts in the 11th District will begin:

McDowell, on the 24th day of March.
Henderson, on the 7th day of April.
Buncombe, on the 21st day of April.
Madison, on the 5th day of May.
Yancey, on the 19th day of May.
Mitchell, on the 2d day of June.
Burke, on the 16th day of June.

The Courts in the 12th District will begin:

Clay, on the 31st day of March.
Macon, on the 13th day of April.
Swain, on the 28th day of April.
Jackson, on the 12th day of May.
Haywood, on the 26th day of May.
Transylvania, on the 9th day of June.

The U. S. Circuit and District Courts will be held as follows:

Greensboro', on the 7th day of April.
Statesville, on the 21st day of April.
Asheville, on the 5th day of May.

The last wild men have been caught in India. These gentry have not been common of late, so we chronicle this capture, and the behavior of the captured. The first seen was near Agia, in Northern India. The region round the town is full of wolves, and many stories are told of children having been carried off by them. Lately some hunters, smoking wolves out of a cave, were astonished to see what they supposed was a strange animal rush out. It was caught with difficulty, and proved to be a Hindoo boy, strangely human, but equally marvelously like the beasts with which it had been bred. He was taken to a mission near, but in every respect it has been found impossible to eradicate the animal in him. He had no speech but a whine. He would wear no clothes, tearing from him everything of the sort whenever put on. He would eat nothing but raw flesh, and when he drank, he lapped the water with his tongue. Left to himself he would hide in some dark spot during the day, from which he would come out at night, and prowl about the enclosure, picking up bones if any were to be found, and ravenously gnawing them. It at first seemed impossible for him to walk erect, but after much difficulty he was taught to do so, and also to use a fork and spoon, and to drink like a human being. He gradually pined away, however, and died in five months. Since then another boy has been captured under almost precisely similar circumstances, and manifests the same savage instincts. He is more teachable than the first one was, and there is some hopes of civilizing him.

Adam Harper, of Georgetown, Ky., who brought a suit for $500,000 damages for slander against some of his relatives, for accusing him of being implicated in the murder of old Jacob and Betsy Harper, has lost his case; and not that, but the developments of the trial threaten to subject him to two indictments, one for being engaged in that murder, and one for being engaged with others in attempting to compel a number of negroes, by hanging, to confess that they were the parties who committed the crime.

Somebody sold a dealer in human hair in Cleaveland, Ohio, some hair that had been cut from the head of a small pox patient, and the dealer took the disease and died.

Morris Brown, a colored inmate of the Penitentiary at Richmond, Virginia, made good his escape on Thursday morning.

A Love Story from the Lunatic Asylum.—While visiting the Lunatic Asylum on Blackwell's Island, Miss Loughlan, a lady in charge of one of the female wards, called a reporter's attention to a pretty, fair-haired girl, about twenty years of age, who had not spoken a word since she entered the asylum, over two years and a half ago. Her name is Lora Beekman, and her insanity was caused by disappointment in love. She was engaged to be married to a young man who, shortly before the appointed wedding day, left her and became engaged to another woman. The keeper and his assistants have resorted to many expedients to make her speak, but her strange silence remains unbroken. With her arms tightly drawn over her breast, she sits on the same stool and listlessly stares at the walls the whole day long, recognizing nobody, and seemingly unconscious of the presence of others. The most romantic episode in this deranged woman's life is that once a year a young man comes and places a boquet of flowers in her hands, after which he immediately goes away. The name and residence of this mysterious visitor are unknown.—N. Y. Sun.

A Curious Point on the National Map.—The city of Wilmington, Delaware, is the best-defined spot on the American map where the South begins and the North ends. Wilmington is, for its own part, a perfect crystal of Yankee grit, run out and fixed in a country which in the highest degree represents the soft, contented, lazy, incoherent Bourbon temper. There is no other instance in the country of such sharp, close contrast. A man might step out to the city limit, and stand with one leg in full Yankeeland, thrilling with enterprise and emulation, and the other planted, as it were, in the "Patriarchal Times." Elsewhere along the effaced line of Mason and Dixon the sections die away into each other; here they stand face to face and stare.

Living "decently" in Washington.—Senator Stewart, of Nevada, voted to increase the pay of Congressmen, on the ground that additional compensation was necessary in order that they might live decently in Washington. One of the Washington papers explains as follows what Stewart meant: "The most superb furniture in Washington is said to be that in the house of Senator Stewart, selected by Mrs. Stewart during her five years' sojourn in Europe, and valued at two hundred thousand dollars. There is a table composed of a gilt stand, supporting a slab of the finest black marble, inlaid with flowers and fruits of Florentine mosaic, and a cabinet of ebony and Florentine mosaic, which is said by connoiseurs to be equaled only by one in the Piti Palace." This, we suppose, is what Senator Stewart calls living "decently in Washington," for which the people are to pay by increasing the compensation of members of Congress.

Beware!—The public in general are cautioned to look out for the spurious articles put up in imitation of and as substitutes for Simmons' Liver Regulator. Buy only from respectable druggists, and see that it is put up in square packages, and has the signature of A. Q. Simmons and J. H. Zeilin & Co., on its side; all others are fraud upon the public. Beware.

John Sullivan, long known in England as "king of the begging-letter impostors," has been sentenced to seven years' penal servitude for swindling General Braybrook out of five dollars by a lying petition. Another king dethroned.

THIS COTTON FERTILIZER has received the highest praise from all sections of country, and the daily press throughout the State. We give below a few extracts from communications of correspondents in various localities of country to the daily newspapers—reporting the voluntary, concordant commendations of the Cotton planters relative to the action of the Cotton Fertilizer, and the high repute in which it is held by the planters, as matter of public interest and benefit—writing from the spot and giving the free, ebullient laudations of the whole people, who had tried and seen its effects, many of whom are the best men, and most successful farmers in North Carolina and Virginia. These extracts are the disinterested reports of newspaper correspondents in their communications to the press, whose business it is to note and relate matters of general news and interest of public importance and concern.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

Extract from correspondence of the Battleboro Advance, (Nash county) in its issue of 23d of August last:

* * * * "Of the commercial manures used, through our section, it is the opinion of those who have applied it that Gilham's Cotton Fertilizer, manufactured by the Southern Fertilizing Company, Richmond, Va., is decidedly the best in the market."

From the Raleigh Sentinel, of Aug. 14th, we make the following extract:

* * * * "In conclusion allow me to speak of the favorable impression among our excellent farmers created by Gilham's Cotton Fertilizer. No section of the state can produce such cotton farmers as Edgecombe, and many of them say this Cotton Fertilizer is equal, and some of them say superior, to Peruvian. This is saying much for it, but if we are to be guided by the many crops around here, which show its excellencies, we have not accorded it too high praise. Nothing is more needed than a good fertilizer, and we inform our readers of the effects of this fertilizer, and the high opinion of it by the cotton planters in this section for the benefit of the farming interest throughout the State."

From a correspondent of the Tarboro Enquirer, writing from Battleboro, N. C., we make this extract from an article in that paper of the 31st August ult.:

* * * * 'Gilham's Cotton Fertilizer is recognized by some of the best planters here to be the best manure used in this section."

From a correspondent from Margarettsville to the Raleigh News, August 27th, we note this paragraph:

"Most of the farmers who have used Gilham's Cotton Fertilizer say it is better, for many reasons, than Peruvian Guano. We were struck by the high repute in which this fertilizer is held by those who have used, and are now using it, and the good opinion entertained, by those who have witnessed its effect under cotton. It is unquestionably very marked."

From a communication from Whitakers to the Biblical Recorder we make the following quotation:

"On asking the farmer's opinion as to the manures, all who have used it pronounce the Gilham's Cotton Fertilizer the best, saying it stands dry weather better than the Peruvian, is equal to it in every respect, surpassing it in some, with due accord express their intention of using it again. This is saying a good deal for the Gilham's, inasmuch as Peruvian costs much more, and has stood so long without a rival, but "facts are stubborn things."

Carolina Baking Powders

You should use the "Carolina Baking Powders" because there is no other that gives such satis action. It makes charming Bread, Delicious Rolls, Cakes, Biscuits, Waffles, Corn Bread, Griddle Cakes, Pastry and Cakes of every Variety. For making Buckwheat Cakes it has no rival.

Those that have tried it, say it is decidedly the VERY BEST. Feeling considerably flattered at the increasing demand where put in competition to so many kinds now on the market, that I shall in future manufacture it on a much greater scale.

It is the only Baking Powder manufactured in the South, and I guarantee it to give as much satisfaction as any other.

GUANO! GUANO!! GUANO!!!

BUY THE BEST

SOLUBLE SEA ISLAND GUANO!

State Fair Premium at Wilmington for the Largest Amount of Cotton to an Acre.

GOLDSBORO, Wayne County, N. C., November 23rd, 1872.

JOHN H. POWELL, ESQ.:

DEAR SIR—The Soluble Sea Island Guano purchased of you this season was used by the side of three others, and has given me more satisfaction than any of the others. The Soluble Sea Island Guano was the one used upon the acre of land upon which my son raised the cotton upon which he took his State premium for the greatest amount of cotton to an acre; and I am informed by the Chairman of the Committee that had he entered for the largest amount of cotton to the acre, premiums upon to all ages, he would have also taken that premium, beating all 150 lbs. I am better pleased with it than any other Guano I have ever used on cotton, and I shall use it in preference to others next season for my cotton crop. T. A. GRANGER.

ALSO EIGHT PREMIUMS AT WAYNE COUNTY FAIR.

The Amount of Seed Cotton made on an Acre of Upland by Mr. Granger was Three Thousand Six Hundred and Thirty-three Pounds.

EDGECOMBE COUNTY, N. C., December 12th, 1872.

Messrs. R. W. L. RAISIN & Co., Baltimore:

I bought of Messrs. Branch, Herbert & Co., last Spring, one ton of your Soluble Sea Island Guano for myself and three tons for other parties, and I find them all well pleased with it, and say it is the best Guano, and paid them better than any I ever used. The ton I used myself was put in cotton by the side of two other guanos, and I am willing to say that I should buy the Soluble Sea Island Guano in preference to any that I have used since the war. Very respectfully,

J. R. GREEN.

SELMA, N. C., November 12th, 1872.

W. H. AVERA, Esq.:

DEAR SIR—The ten bags Soluble Sea Island Guano more than met my expectations I consider it equal to Peruvian for cotton. It paid me over 100 per cent. I more than doubled the crop. My neighbors who bought it are highly pleased, and will use it in preference to any other when it can be had. Hope you will keep a supply the coming Spring.

Truly yours, R. HARE.

LOUISBURG, N. C., December 4th, 1872.

E. W. FULLER, Esq.:

DEAR SIR—I tested your Guano this year, and the result is, I will use it on my whole cotton crop next year. Yours, &c.,

ELLIS MALONE.

HENDERSON, Granville County, N. C., November 29th 1872.

To S. J. PARHAM:

The Soluble Sea Island Guano purchased of you was used on tobacco and cotton by me by the side of Peruvian Guano, Stonewall & * * * *. I like it much better than either, and I observed a marked difference in favor of the Sea Island. Shall use in the future. S. S. ROYSTER.

HENDERSON, Granville county.

HENRY BURRELL, Esq., has stated to us that he made a test this present year's tobacco crop, using two other higher-priced guanos, but is convinced that the Soluble Sea Island Guano is the cheapest guano he has ever purchased, and shall use it again.

YANCEYVILLE, Caswell County, N. C. December 6th, 1872.

Captain W. P. ROBINSON,

DEAR SIR—In reply to your inquiry as to how I liked the Sea Island Guano I got of you, I wish to say that I applied it, 200 pounds to the acre, alongside of Peruvian, Pacific Guano and Gilham's Tobacco Fertilizer in equal quantities; it stands the drouth better than either of the above fertilizers. It matured better on the hill and cured better and more yellow than either of the other fertilizers used. I think it is a splendid fertilizer and I expect to use it next season. Yours, respectfully,

MARCELLUS MIMMS.

WILSON, N. C., January 11th, 1873.

Messrs. HARRISS & BLACKWELL:

GENTS—I used this season, on my cotton crops about 15 tons of your Soluble Sea Island Guano, testing it by the side of Guanape and Vegitator, and up to the time of the heavy washing rains last of June, I was equally pleased with its action as of the Guanape and better pleased than with the Vegitator. SUNDAY.....MARCH 23, 1873.

ST. PAUL'S.

I see above a crowded world a cross
Of gold, It grows like some fork'd cedar-tree
Upon a peak in shroud of cloud and moss,
Made bare and bronzed in far antiquity.
Stupendous pile! The grim Yosemite
Has rent apart his granite wall, and thrown
Its rugged front before us.....Here I see
The strides of giant men in cryptic stone,
And turn, and slow descend where sleep
the great alone.

The mighty captains have come home to rest;
The brave returned to sleep amid the brave,
The sentinels that stood with steely breast
Before the fiery hosts of France, and gave
The battle-cry that rolled, receding wave
On wave, the foeman flying back and far,
Is here. How still! Yet louder now the grave
Than ever crushing Belgian battle-car
Or blue and battle-shaken seas of Trafalgar.

The verger stalks in stiff importance o'er
The hollow, deep, and strange responding stones;
He stands with lifted staff unchid before
The forms that once had crush'd or fashion'd thrones,
And coldly points you out the coffin'd bones:
He stands composed where armies could not stand
A little time before.....The hand disowns
The idle sword, and now instead the grand
And golden cross makes signs and takes austere command.
—Joaquin Miller, in April Galaxy.

A Tale of a Shirt.

In Merced there dwells a married man, whose wife is a stylish and thoughtful woman, ever on the alert to fix up her darling "hubby" so that he will outshine anybody else's darling "hubby." Some time since she conceived the idea of constructing for her liege lord an outfit of open-backed shirts. How she discovered that there were such articles—opening reverely—and how she got a pattern are matters of speculation. Certain it is that she constructed them upon the approved model, "did them up" nicely, and laid them in John's special bureau drawer, and reveled in the thought of dear John's pleasant surprise. His surprise was complete, and reached its maximum when he attempted to put the thing on. He had a dim notion that he must stand on his head or stick his feet through first, but his wife knew better. Her woman's tact taught her that this wasn't the way, so she helped him put it on over his head. Then he couldn't get his arms in the sleeves. Next he pulled it off and put his arms through first. Then he couldn't get it on over his head. Finally a brilliant idea seized them both, after a half hour's work on the wrong tack. He bent himself over in the form of an inverted letter U with his arms outstretched, and after a short struggle, assisted by Julia, the thing was done, all but the buttoning, and of course he couldn't do that unassisted. That week John was as happy as a nigger in a Major General's uniform, but Saturday brought its revenge. He must take a bath, so he hied to Riley's, walked into one of his unoccupied bath-rooms and disrobed—that is, all but the shirt. He couldn't unbutton it, but after a desperate effort he succeeded in bursting off all the buttons. This was at least a partial victory, and he proceeded to struggle with what was to come. He wrestled in despair with the obdurate garment but come off it wouldn't. He struggled frantically, savagely; but 'twas no use; it stuck tighter than a mother-in-law. Finally in sheer desperation he ripped up one side seam, from the extremity to the neck-band, and he stood relieved. Dressing himself—all but the shirt, which he rolled up in a newspaper—and buttoning his coat tightly around his breast, he repaired to his home. And here he greeted the partner of his joys as follows: "See here, Jule, is there any law making me wear this confounded shirt?" "No, John, dear," was her meek answer. "Is there any law," he continued, "compelling you to manufacture the cussed things?" A shake of her head answered this query. "Well," said he, "I'm glad of it, and the next time you make me one of these darned things I'm blessed if you shan't wear it yourself." His shirts don't open in the back any more.

This is strictly a
HOME LIFE COMPANY.
Its Officers and Directors are citizens of the State, of high character for business capacity, enterprise and probity. It offers every SUBSTANTIAL BENEFIT
that Northern Companies do, with the great additional consideration that the capital is kept within the State, and, therefore, helps to build up and foster Home Institutions.
Another importan tfact to be considered is, that the Wilmington Live has thus far obtained A VERY MUCH LARGER INTEREST for the money invested at home, than any of the New York Companies receive for their investments, according to their sworn statements before the Commissioner of that State.
These unquestionable facts should commend this Company, above all others, to our people. Let it be born in mind that millions of dollars received for Life premiums have been sent North since the war, which at once drains the South and enriches the plethoric capitalists of the North. If there was no other consideration, safety, fairness and cheapness being equal, why North Carolinians should INSURE AT HOME. this were more than sufficient.
THE WILMINGTON LIFE has excellent special features.
It places no restriction on Residence or Travel. It makes no extra charge for Female risks; and its Policies are incontestable after Five Years.
Its business is managed economically. Its risks are taken with equal caution. Its investments are made judiciously.
Its motto is:
"ECONOMY, PROMPTNESS, FAIRNESS."

THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL
LIFE INSURANCE CO.,
OF HARTFORD, CONN.

Annual Income, Nearly
$10,000,000.00!!!
This Company has steadily pursued two great practical ends:
FIRST.
To place its policies beyond the power of adverse contingencies.
SECOND.
To reduce the actual outlay of its members for their policies to the lowest possible rate. To accomplish this, it allows him to retain from 20 to 30 per cent. of the first premium as a permanent credit or loan, and to retain from each subsequent premium that portion of the previous year's full premium actually proved to be surplus; so that at no time does the Company take from him a higher actual premium than is needed to carry the risk for the year, and provide the reinsurance fund. It is strictly Mutual. Nothing is diverted to stockholders, and each member has his insurance at its exact cost to the Company. Its rate of expense has been from the beginning less than that of other companies.
S. DOUGLAS WAIT, Gen. Agent,

NORTH CAROLINA LAND COMPANY.
ESTABLISHED
TO PROMOTE THE SALE
OF
LANDS, AND ENCOURAGE EMIGRATION
TO
NORTH CAROLINA
OFFICE:
Raleigh, North Carolina.

This Company has been in successful operation over three years, and continues to Buy, Sell, Lease or Rent Real Estate, upon commission or otherwise, on the most favorable terms.
Parties having lands to sell, will find it to their interest to call at our office, or correspond with us, as our facilities for selling are increasing every day.
Large tracts are rendered more saleable by being divided.
This Company is favorably known at HOME and ABROAD, as the large number of emigrants it has introduced and located in this State, fully attests.
Parties entrusting business in their hands, have the best assurance, that they will be fairly represented.
Address all communications to the North Carolina Land Company, or to William Scott, Secretary. GEO. LITTLE,
WILLIAM SCOTT, President.

REAL ESTATE AGENCY.

The partnership that has for the last year existed between Messrs. KINGSLAND & MILLER having expired, the business will be continued as heretofore, under the
RALEIGH NATIONAL BANK,
BY ANDREW MILLER,
who will endeavor to conduct it in a satisfactory manner and to the best advantage of depositors of lots and tracts of lands for sale. His commissions will be as heretofore, five per cent on actual sales.
NO SALES NO CHARGE.
Mr Miller is constantly selling and offering for sale very eligible building lots in different parts of Raleigh.
Also plantations, large and small, wood and timbered lands, &c., &c., in any quantity in different parts of the State and at prices correspondent with the times.
He solicits calls from buyers as well as from sellers.
Now is the time to buy in North Carolina.

MR. JAS. PIRSSON:
SIR:—The Piano which I purchased from you in September, 1870, is a very superior one. It has been frequently tested by competent judges, all of whom give unequivocal testimony to its excellence. I could not ask for a better instrument.
Very Respectfully,

NORTH CAROLINA ALMANAC, 1873
Calculated by Dr. Craven, and compiled by L. Branson, printed on fine-sized and calendered paper, neatly and elegantly.
It contains many useful recipes, much valuable statistical matter, and many AGRICULTURAL
items. It is emphatically an AGRICULTURAL ALMANAC. It is different from every other Almanac; has been published a number of years and sold successfully.—It is, we think, certainly as good if not better than any other.
A few still on hand—order soon.
